Yesterday, Catholic Family News managing editor Matt Gaspers was interviewed on The Catholic Current, a radio program produced by The Station of the Cross (see below for full audio).

Fr. Robert McTeigue, S.J., host of the show, and Mr. Gaspers discussed Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò's recent critiques of the Second Vatican Council — beginning with His Excellency's rejection of Benedict XVI's "hermeneutic of continuity" last November (see here for details) — as well as the ongoing civil unrest and anti-Catholic violence on display throughout the United States.

In light of the forthcoming presidential election, they also touched upon the importance of forming one's conscience according to divine and natural law as infallibly taught by Holy Mother Church and casting one's vote accordingly.
