Catholic Family News is happy to announce rooms can now be reserved at a reduced conference rate for the length of the 2019 Conference, May 3-5. This year's theme is Fifty Years of Problems with the New Mass. For more information on the conference including the list of speakers and topics and how to by conference tickets click here.

The 2019 Conference will be held in the Hyatt Regency Deerfield hotel near Chicago, IL. CFN has negotiated a reduced rate of $89 a night which includes up to four breakfast vouchers for a free breakfast. This rate is available for the nights of May 2 through May 5, 2019. After you buy your conference tickets, you should reserve your room at the hotel as there are only a limited number of King and two Queen rooms available at this rate. Staying in the conference hotel will give you the following advantages:

- You will be just a few minutes walk through the hotel to all conference meals and lectures. Mass will be offered each day in the hotel.
- Free breakfast vouchers for those staying in your room, up to 4 per room.
- Access to an indoor pool and 24 fitness center on premises.

To make your reservations, please click here:
https://www.hyatt.com/en-US/group-booking/DEERF/G-CF19

If you need additional assistance, please contact Hyatt Regency directly at 877-803-7534 or click here to find contact information by Region. Be sure to tell them you are trying to reserve the special CFN rate.

If the group rate is no longer available, prevailing rates may be offered for some or all of your dates.

Copyright © catholicfamilynews.com. All rights reserved.