

What are the “Six Strikes Against Vatican II”? Is it really “unthinkable” to question the Council? What have both progressivists and Traditional Catholics said about the Council texts? Why is this Council unlike anything else in Church history? Who admitted the Council contains “compromised formulas”? CFN Editor John Vennari deals with these questions and more in this brief video. Please share with others!