John Vennari interviewed about Fatima Conference in Boston

IN THIS SHOW:

Of course you get “This Day in History”- Guest: John Vennari to talk about the Fatima Conference coming up April 22-24, in Boston. John talks about the tribute to Fr. Gruner and the various speakers who will be at the Fatima Conference and the very important massage of Fatima still not heeded by so many to this day! This is a very unique show for Lisa, as she had just gotten word of the passing of her Uncle John, in Boston (please pray for him). The message at the end of today’s show is to speak up and often about our Roman Catholic Faith, Traditionalism and the importance of being vocal about it. Thanks for listening!
