

Sneering, Condescending Francis Insults Young Tridentine Catholics – the new “Deplorables”?

Pope Francis is a typical modernist Jesuit who loves every religion but his own. In this report below, we see Francis insult young traditionalist Catholics for their love of the true Mass, even stooping to claim to know and castigate their moral motives: “...This rigidity always hides something, insecurity or even something else. Rigidity is defensive. True love is not rigid.”

Dear Francis, with these statements you tell us more about your own toxic disorientation than any of the alleged shortcomings of faithful young Catholics. The Bergoglio menace has insulted my children and the young (and not-so-young) Catholics who recognize the true value of the Mass of all time. We are dealing with a remarkably sick man. The report below speaks for itself. Oremus – John Vennari

Pope, in interview, laments ‘rigidity’ of youth who prefer Latin Mass:

(Catholic Culture)- Cardinal-designate Blase Cupich of Chicago joined Cardinal Pietro Parolin, the Vatican’s Secretary of State, as a presenter at a Vatican press conference on the publication of Nei tuoi occhi è la mia parola (“In Your Eyes Are My Word”).

The book is the first unabridged collection of the future Pope Francis’s homilies and addresses from 1999 to 2013, when he served as archbishop of Buenos Aires.

Other presenters at the press conference included Father Arturo Sosa, the new superior general of the Society of Jesus, and Father Federico Lombardi, the former director of the Holy See Press Office.

The book also includes a new interview with Father Antonio Spadaro, editor-in-chief of Civiltà Cattolica. During the interview, the Pope spoke about the importance of listening to others, as well as his method of preparation for his daily Mass homilies.

He also discussed the sacred liturgy. Crux reported:

Asked about the liturgy, Pope Francis insisted the Mass reformed after the Second Vatican Council is here to stay and “to speak of a ‘reform of the reform’ is an error.”

Sneering, Condescending Francis Insults Young Tridentine Catholics - the new “Deplorables”?

In authorizing regular use of the older Mass, now referred to as the “extraordinary form,” now-retired Pope Benedict XVI was “magnanimous” toward those attached to the old liturgy, he said. “But it is an exception.”

Pope Francis told Father Spadaro he wonders why some young people, who were not raised with the old Latin Mass, nevertheless prefer it.

“And I ask myself: Why so much rigidity? Dig, dig, this rigidity always hides something, insecurity or even something else. Rigidity is defensive. True love is not rigid.”
