

A Christmas Win-Win: Purchase Great Coffee And Support Traditional Benedictine Monks!

In the Benedictine tradition, the Monks of Our Lady of Guadalupe Monastery strive for a self-sufficient monastery through production of quality items.

Seasonally-available, the Christmas Blend of Abbey Roast Coffee is a sought-after gift for family and loved ones during Christmas celebrations.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Monastery is located in the mountains bordering the Gila National Forest in southwest New Mexico. Construction of the monastery began in 1991 and has rarely ceased, due to the seemingly-endless stream of vocations that are attracted to the Benedictine life.

In order to support this expansion, and through the Rule of St. Benedict which calls the men to a life of prayer and work (Ora et Labora), the Brothers source, roast, and sell coffee of exceptional quality; 100% Gourmet Arabica Coffee carefully roasted in small batches in order to bring out their unique qualities. Their prized, direct trade Brazilian gourmet coffee is harvested from a small family-owned plantation located in the mountains of Nova Friburgo, Brazil, and was awarded first prize in the Rio de Janeiro Specialty Coffee Competition for quality. They are the exclusive importers to the United States of this acclaimed coffee.

“All proceeds contribute to the expansion of our Monastery in order to receive the many vocations knocking on our doors. We are most grateful for your purchase which greatly helps to support our growing monastic community. May God bless you eternally!”

The Brothers also have an email list that alerts subscribers to news, as well as special items available which support their vocation.

This report originally appeared on SSPX.org.