

Catholic Family News is happy to release another interview conducted during our 2019 Conference on The New Mass: Fifty Years of Problems. In this interview, Fr. Michael Rodriguez, a priest of the Diocese of El Paso (Texas), gives a preview of his conference in which he tells the story of his journey to the Traditional Latin Mass. His story and testimony are compelling. Father inspires hope for the restoration of the sacred priesthood. All conference talks are available for purchase from our online store.
