In this episode, CFN's editors discuss:

- USCCB employee is thrilled at Kamala Harris VP pick but USCCB does not disavow her statements
- Democratic National Convention tries to play to Catholic vote while being the most radically pro-abortion ticket in history
- Infamous priest Fr. James Martin, S.J. offered a "prayer" at the Democratic Convention, but pro-life activist and TLM attendee Abby Johnson is invited to speak at the Republican Convention
- Santa Fe Archdiocese threatens to suspend priests' faculties who preach more than five minutes to prevent Coronavirus (really, this is true!)
- Archbishop Viganò's reply to the assaults of Bishop Barron, who wants to defend Vatican II at all costs (Archbishop Vigano's response is available here)
