

In this special episode, CFN's editors discuss the Republican National Convention (Aug. 24-27, 2020), a historic event during which pro-life, pro-family, and pro-Christian themes and speakers were front and center.

As Managing Editor Matt Gaspers sums it up towards the beginning of the discussion, "this election really boils down to either voting in favor of what Our Lady Fatima called the 'errors of Russia' or voting against those errors."
