

Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò has issued a new and rousing Declaration. This most recent intervention was precipitated by a flurry of news reports regarding comments made by Pope Francis within the documentary film Francesco. According to a variety of sources, some of which are cited by the Archbishop, Pope Francis approves of the cohabitation of people of the same gender and calls for the establishment of civil unions to publicly sanction their scandalous lifestyle. The Argentinian Pontiff is quoted as claiming that homosexuals “have a right to a family.”

Archbishop Viganò sees in these outrageous betrayals of the Natural and Divine Law a calculated plan to consolidate the power of the Dictator Pope. His Grace explains the two-pronged approach. First, he believes Francis is trying to force the orthodox members of the hierarchy to publicly accuse Francis of heresy so that he can use their act as a pretext to persecute them and claim (illegally and unjustly) that they are outside the Church. Secondly, he wants to use the nefarious power of the “deep state” to persecute faithful clergy. He notes that many countries now make it a crime to speak against homosexual sins or legal recognition of them. Thus, if Catholics speak out against Pope Francis’ attack on Catholic teaching, their speech can be used by the deep state to persecute them under civil law “with the approval of the Vatican.”

His Grace goes on to point out the hypocrisy of Francis, who through his agents has attempted to muzzle conservative U.S. bishops who seek to warn their flock against the hiring of Joe Biden while using this documentary to effectively endorse the radical pro-baby killing Joe Biden.

The Archbishop sums up the tragedy of this struggle of the children of light against darkness thus: “As Catholics, we are called to side with those who defend life, the natural family, and national sovereignty. We thought that we had the Vicar of Christ at our side. We painfully acknowledge that, in this epochal clash, he who ought to be guiding the Barque of Peter has chosen to side with the Enemy, in order to sink it.” (Note the capitalization of the word “Enemy.”)

Clearly, Archbishop Viganò is warning us that we are being forced to choose sides: either we legitimately resist the efforts of this Dictator Pope to utterly disfigure the human element of the Church and suffer persecution by him and his allies in the globalist deep state, or we betray Our Lord and our baptismal promises. The choice is before us; thank God that a good shepherd has emerged to illuminate the way.

DECLARATION of His Excellency
Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò
about the documentary film *Francesco

Rome, October 21st, 2020 – The [Vatican News website\[1\]](#) has reported the news that today at the Rome Film Festival a documentary film will be screened called Francesco made by director Evgeny Afineevsky.

This documentary – according to what has been reported by [Catholic News Agency^{\[2\]}](#) and [America Magazine^{\[3\]}](#) – makes public several pronouncements of Jorge Mario Bergoglio on the topic of homosexuality. Among the various statements, these two are particularly disconcerting:

“Homosexuals have a right to be a part of the family. They’re children of God and have a right to a family. Nobody should be thrown out, or be made miserable because of it.”

“What we have to create is a civil union law. That way they are legally covered. I stood up for that.”

One does not have to be a theologian or a moral expert to know that such statements are totally heterodox and constitute a very serious cause of scandal for the faithful.

But pay careful attention: these words simply constitute the umpteenth provocation by which the “ultra-progressive” part of the Hierarchy wants to artfully provoke a schism, as it has already tried to do with the Post-Synodal Exhortation Amoris Laetitia, the modification of doctrine on the death penalty, the Pan-Amazon Synod and the filthy Pachamama, and the Abu Dhabi Declaration which has now been reaffirmed and aggravated by the Encyclical Fratelli Tutti.

It appears that Bergoglio is impudently trying to “raise the stakes” in a crescendo of heretical affirmations, in such a way that it will force the healthy part of the Church – which includes bishops, clergy, and faithful – to accuse him of heresy, in order to declare that healthy part of the Church schismatic and “the enemy of the Pope.”

Jorge Mario Bergoglio is trying to force some Cardinals and Bishops to separate themselves from communion with him, obtaining as a result not his own deposition for heresy but rather the expulsion of Catholics who want to remain faithful to the perennial Magisterium of the Church. This trap would have the purpose – in the presumed intentions of Bergoglio and his “magic circle” – of consolidating his own power within a church that would only nominally be “Catholic” but in reality would be heretical and schismatic.

This deception draws on the support of the globalist élite, the mainstream media and the LGBT lobby, to which many clergy, bishops, and cardinals are no strangers. Furthermore, let us not forget that in many nations there are laws in force which criminally punish anyone who considers sodomy reprehensible and sinful or who does not approve of the legitimization of homosexual “matrimony” – even if they do so on the basis of their Creed. A pronouncement by the bishops against Bergoglio on a question like homosexuality could potentially lead civil authority to prosecute them criminally, with the approval of the Vatican.

Bergoglio would thus have on his side not only the “deep church” represented by rebels like Father James Martin, S.J., and those who promote the German “Synodal Path,” but also the “deep state.” It is not surprising that in the documentary there is also an endorsement of the Democratic candidate in the upcoming American presidential election, along with a disconcerting condemnation of the policy of the Trump Administration, which is accused of separating families that want to enter the United States illegally, while the reality is that the President is confronting human trafficking and the trafficking of minors.

Thus, while conservative American bishops are forbidden from intervening in the political debate in support of President Trump, the Vatican allows itself to casually interfere in the elections in favor of his Democratic adversary, in union with the censorship by social and news media of the very serious accusations against the Biden family.

As Catholics, we are called to side with those who defend life, the natural family, and national sovereignty. We thought that we had the Vicar of Christ at our side. We painfully acknowledge that, in this epochal clash, he who ought to be guiding the Barque of Peter has chosen to side with the Enemy, in order to sink it. Recalling the courage of the Holy Pontiffs in defending the integrity of the Faith and promoting the salvation of souls, one can only observe: Quantum mutatus ab illis! [4]

+ Carlo Maria Viganò, Archbishop

[1]

<https://www.vaticannews.va/it/papa/news/2020-10/papa-francesco-film-documentario-festival-cinema-roma.html>

[2]

<https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/pope-francis-calls-for-civil-union-law-for-same-sex-couples-in-shift-from-vatican-stance-12462>

[3]

<https://www.americamagazine.org/faith/2020/10/21/pope-francis-gay-civil-union-documentary>

[4] “How changed from what they once were!” – cf. Virgil’s Aeneid: “Quantum mutatus ab illo!”