

Weekly News Roundup: TLM Suppression Fallout; McCarrick
Criminally Charged; Evidence of Problem in Vatican with Hook-up
Apps; Congress Votes to Force Funding of Abortion; New Disturbing
Image from the Vatican

This week's stories include: (1) More fallout (good and bad) from Traditionis Custodes' assault on the True Mass; (2) former cardinal and priest Theodore McCarrick charged with criminal sexual assault of a young boy and more reporting on the use of immoral dating apps by Vatican and diocesan clerics; (3) U.S. House of Representatives passes a budget bill removing limitations on federal tax dollars being used to fund abortions; and (4) the Vatican releases a disturbing image in anticipation of the 2022 World Meeting of Families.