

Brian McCall discusses the first academic year of the four-year fully Traditional Catholic college, Collegium Sanctorum Angelorum, with its founding President, Dr. Edward Schaefer, and member of the founding faculty, Professor Phillip Berns.

Collegium Sanctorum Angelorum (College of the Holy Angels) is a faithful, affordable, and classical liberal arts college. It will be a residential, four-year college which provides a liberal arts education (A.A. and B.A.) faithful to the intellectual, moral, spiritual, and liturgical traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, as well as formation in Catholic living (ora et labora), all at affordable rates.

For more information, or to apply for admission or donate, please visit the college's website here.
