

Earlier this week, on the fifth anniversary of longtime CFN editor John Vennari's death, his three children (Elizabeth, Philomena, and Benedict) shared their memories of this great figure of Catholic Tradition. For all who knew John through his work with CFN, this interview will give you wonderful insight into who he was as a person through the eyes of his beloved children.