This week, CFN’s Matt Gaspers joined Kennedy Hall to discuss some news items related to “Pride Month” and the larger culture war in Church and State. Topics covered include the blasphemous LGBT film Wonderfully Made (featuring Fr. James Martin, SJ), the homosexual movement’s strategy for desensitizing the general population to unnatural vice, encouraging signs of resistance to the aforementioned movement, the need for strong male leadership within the Church (especially from bishops), the Vatican’s recent World Meeting on Human Fraternity (including the homosexual dancer invited to perform) predictions about the upcoming Synod on Synodality meeting in Rome (scheduled to open in early October), and more.
