Brian McCall and Brian Mershon speak with Libby Ibanez who has witnessed first hand the cancelling of a thriving Traditional Latin Mass Community in Corpus Christi Texas. As an Easter gift in April, the local bishop disbanded the TLM community of St. John's notwithstanding hundreds of regular parishioners, including young families, and thousands of dollars in weekly donations. Yet, this act of tyranny would not prevail and many including Mrs. Ibanez found a new home to continue living and worshiping as Catholics have done for millennia.
