

This year, I noticed that there was lacking a thorough review of each of the Daily Missals. Not just the 'big four' Angelus, Baronius, St. Andrew's and Father Lasance, but one that also looks at the more obscure ones that we frequently see inside Catholic used book stores.

This video is my attempt at doing that, as we look at the history of Missals, why the 'big four' came to popularity, and the gems found in the more obscure missals as well. Enjoy!
