

I believe one of the most important things for us to do at the beginning of this Leonine pontificate is to place ourselves in historical context. It was incredibly helpful to be able to stay in Rome with Dr. John Rao, one of the most prolific Catholic historians of our day, and interview him on the papal conclave. Below is a portion of that interview. For the full interview, access to our e-edition paper, the Father Fahey Conferences and much more you can visit <https://catholicfamilynews.locals.com/>

The promotional graphic features a red background with white and black text and graphics. At the top left is the 'LOcaLS' logo. In the center is a black silhouette of two figures in a conclave, with a white cross above them. At the top right is a QR code. The main title 'CATHOLIC FAMILY NEWS PREMIUM VIDEO CHANNEL' is in large white letters. Below it is a bulleted list of features. At the bottom is the website URL.
